On May 17, 2005, Mr. Brown told me to do so many jobs at McDonald's until she caused me to feel forced and and caused one by one of the employees who complained about me taking too long to mop the floor and clean up the restaurant after you had said we had to clean up the restaurant one of these jobs and when asked how to show her me help make the hamburgers, Cook ~~the~~

she would not show me how to do these jobs and she would not tell me how to do these jobs.

On this same morn. which were May 17, 2005, Mr. Sam lived to make me wash all the marks on the grill that had been exposed to chemicals and I had already told her that I was allergic to them and I had already reported them & how yellow her skin told Mr. Kerri that I wanted to go home Mrs. Kerri said no was a violation and that she could now let me leave the restaurant, at the time, I was real sick, and I misunderstood Mr. Kerri and I thought that she said I was violating the company's policy by getting sick and I asked Mr. Kerri to call you because my major concerns were were the safety of my body, eyes and my health. I was worried about losing my eye sight and about getting sick on my second night at work and about being constantly harassed by Ms. Sara, I don't know Mr. Sam, I don't even recall even seeing Ms. Sam until I came to work at MacDonalda.

On May 20, 2005, while starting to work on the grill, Mrs. Brenda told me to go and help out up front, I helped out up front for a while, then Mr. Palmer told me to sweep up and clean up the work area, I did this for a while. ~~Then~~ ~~Palmer also told me to~~ then Ms. Brenda told me sweep up and mop the dining rooms and the playground and when I did this too.

At approximately 10:30 p.m., when I started to clean up the kitchen and wash the dishes, Ms. Sara started ordering me to do far as five the jobs as one time, she left her work area, that she was alone and, she started piling cooking utensils, ~~dishes~~ ^{Cups} trays, pans, pots and she came over to the work area where I was working and ^{where} I was washing dishes ^{and} she ~~stacked~~ piled all ~~kind~~ ^{sorts} of ~~cooking utensils~~ All kinds of cooking utensils, pans, pots and all kinds of ~~cooking~~ items that needed washing in the sink where ~~the~~ the utensils were ^{from} ~~being~~ ^{being} washed, she piled ^{from bottom to top} the sink where I was washing dishes all full of cooking utensils and other items that needed washing and then she started ~~packing to other~~ ^{put} stacks ^{to see} other utensils and items that needed washing and the sink at the table ~~at~~ the whole top of the kitchen sink where I was washing at.

Made me sick, the hot steam on my eyes to burn, it's to burn and burn and all ~~that~~ burn red and different colored

Ms. Sarah told Ms. Kew, The Crew Manager that I refused to wash the attachments that had been exposed to the chemicals that were attached on the grill

Palmer asked me to clean the bathroom, while, I'm cooking hamburger on the grill, and while, she's standing up talking and having fun with China, Digger, and some more of the whale workers

And anybody could plainly see from the look in my eyes that these chemicals had hurt me ~~and~~ ^{when I refused to wash} the attachments that had been exposed to the chemicals that I ~~was~~ ^{was exposed to} already had already made me sick. Ms. Sain had Ms. Kerr, the crew manager that I would now wash the attachments that come off of the grill, which, I had already told Ms. Sain that these chemicals made had already made me sick.

And when I refused to wash the attachments when telling her that I was already sick from the chemicals, Ms. Sain told Ms. Kerr, the crew manager that I refused to wash the attachments that were on the grill that had been exposed to the chemicals, ^{while}

Kerr ordered me to wash these attachments also.
She didn't seem to understand that ~~the~~ should have been able to tell from the color made me sick. I ~~had to~~ continued working on
